

NAMES OF POLICE HEROES ADDED TO BRONZE TABLET

New List Includes Eleven Who Met
Death in the Performance of Their Duties.

Work was begun this morning on the bronze tablet at the left of the main entrance to Police Headquarters for the addition of the names of eleven policemen who died in the performance of their duty during the last four years. There are already nine names on the tablet and on the tablet to the right of the entrance there are thirty-four.

The name of the first colored policeman to be killed on duty is included in the eleven. It is that of Robert H. Holmes, who was shot to death by a burglar in a Harlem saloon on Aug. 6, 1917. The last name on the list is that of Patrolman Michael J. Kelly, who was shot May 4, 1914. The first name on the completed list of thirty-four is that of Patrolman James Cahill, killed at a fire Dec. 29, 1904. The new list includes:

John Mee, killed by an auto July 18, 1914; Sergt. John E. Hodges, crushed between auto and fire engine Oct. 7, 1914; Edmunds Lehane, struck by trolley car on traffic duty Dec. 15, 1914; Joseph A. Webster, killed by auto May 20, 1915; Joseph N. Gaffney, shot Jan. 1, 1916; Henry H. Schwarz, shot May 29, 1916;

Samuel T. Conyngham, shot May 25, 1917; John P. Flood, beaten to death by a burglar; Samuel Rosenfeld, shot by a burglar in Brooklyn Feb. 13, 1918; Detective John J. Quinn, killed by a burglar prisoner Feb. 16, 1918.

HUMAN NATURE.

(From the Detroit Free Press.)

Nine times out of ten the man who is yelling loudest about morality sticking up for his rights is mad because he can't get some of the other fellow's rights.

Lemon Juice For Freckles

Girls! Make beauty lotion at home for a few cents. Try it!

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of the best freckle and tan lotion, and complexion beautifier, at very, very small cost.

Your grocer has the lemons and any drug store or toilet counter will supply three ounces of orchard white for a few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day and see how freckles and blemishes disappear and how clear, soft and white the skin becomes. Yes! It is harmless.—Advt.
